Our central location at the junctions of I-81, I-88 and New York Route 17 (future I-86) makes us easily accessible for all attendees from any point within the northeast. Add to that our 2,500 first-class affordable overnight accommodations and modern meeting/exhibit facilities and you have all the ingredients for a successful event.

There is a variety of free planning services which our staff is able to assist you with, ranging from housing and publicity to hotel negotiations, site inspections, registration assistance and much, much more.

With our convenient location and unsurpassed hospitality, Greater Binghamton has long been one of the northeast's GREATER places to meet.

For Up-To-Date Information

For the latest information on the Greater Binghamton region, visit our website at www.VisitBinghamton.org or www.bingthings.com. Here you can browse accommodation options, learn about area events and request more information to make your meeting a success.

Accessibility

Air Travel

The Greater Binghamton Airport offers many modern amenities including a roomy departure lounge, a business conference center, an internet-accessible resource room, efficient ticketing and baggage claim area and a convenient restaurant.

The airline that currently serves the Greater Binghamton Airport is Delta (www.delta.com) with direct flights daily to Detroit.

Commercial and charter flight information along with other valuable information about BGM can be found by visiting www.binghamtonairport.com or www.flybgm.com.

Highways

Broome County is located at the intersection of two Interstate highways (I-81 and I-88) and a major state route (New York Route 17). Upgrades continue on New York State Route 17 to federal Interstate 86, making Greater Binghamton easily accessible from all points in the Northeast.

Convention Services

When planning your event, you want as much support and information as possible. That's what we do at Visit Binghamton. Send us your requirements (or give us a call) for your meeting or event and we'll gather proposals and offer you our wide array of FREE services:

Formal Presentations

If you're already convinced about meeting in Greater Binghamton, but need to convince someone else, we are prepared to make a formal presentation. We have a video as well as a variety of other promotional materials available.

Site Inspection

If you would like to personally come and inspect a site, our Convention Staff will happily arrange your itinerary and accompany you on the tour.

Housing

For groups using more than two hotels, Visit Binghamton will act as a clearinghouse, accepting reservations and distributing them to the requested hotels and motels.

Publicity

To maximize your visibility in our community and so that we can properly show our appreciation, we will assist in the dissemination of press releases to all local media outlets.

Recognition

For day-to-day recognition as you frequent our community's stores, restaurants and services, we will design welcome notices to be used in store-front windows.

Spousal Programs

While you are busy at your meeting, your travel companions will be well attended to... we've got programs to keep them busy all day!

At Your Leisure

The meetings are going well and the meal functions are perfect! So how can you improve on the Meeting Experience?
Head out and explore Greater Binghamton!

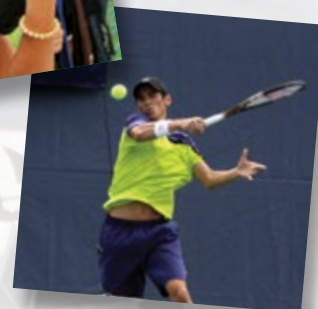

Bask in the creativity of fine art and collectibles at our numerous gallery and studio spaces. Learn about the past at the Bundy Museum of History & Art, Phelps Mansion Museum or Roberson Museum & Science Center. Set up a tour to learn about our historic carousels, unique architecture, ethnic diversity and scenic beauty. Be a kid again at the Animal Adventure Park – home of April the Giraffe and her mate Oliver. Or visit the Binghamton Zoo at Ross Park. Walk a river trail – there are several planned and groomed paths throughout the County. Follow the fragrance to Candyland at the Windy Hill Candle Factory or Cutler Botanic garden. Dine at a 5 star gourmet restaurant or feast on a Spiedie – a local delicacy not to be missed!

We all want to be entertained! Greater Binghamton offers professional companies in theater, philharmonic and opera. Local music venues offer jazz, rock, country and blues. Taverns and coffee houses feature performances from local artists. The Binghamton Rumble Ponies (AA Baseball) offer full seasons of games to attend.

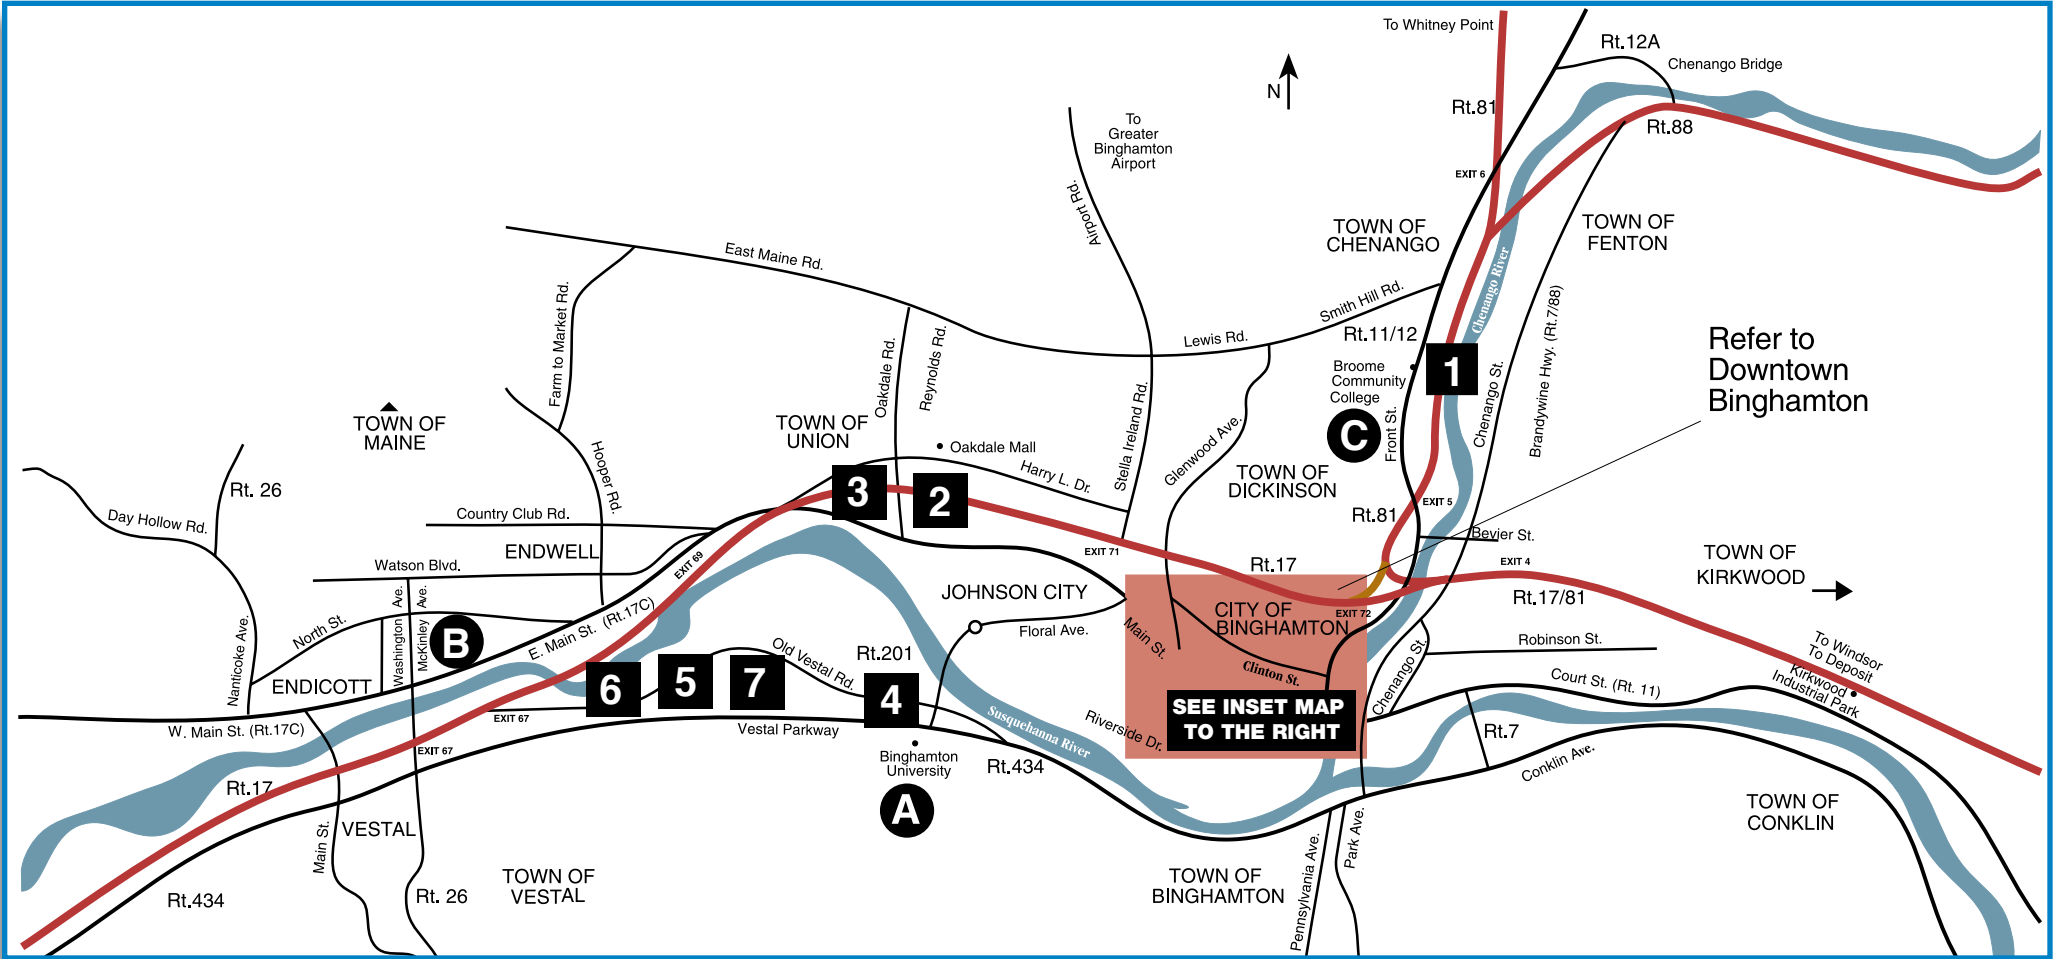

Timing is everything, and if your meeting coincides with one of our festivals you are surely in for fun! The Annual Spiedie Fest & Balloon Rally, July Fest, First Friday Art Walk, Dick's Sporting Goods Open, Deposit Days & Lumberjack Festival, Annual Crappie Derby, Antique Steam Engine Reunion, LUMA (the largest projection fine arts and entertainment festival in the United States) – diverse enough for you? For a listing of events taking place – click on the Calendar of Events on our website – www.VisitBinghamton.org
