1 BROOME COUNTY ARTS COUNCIL: PUBLIC SCULPTURE VIRTUAL AND SELF-GUIDED TOURS

Welcome to Broome County Arts Council's exhibition of public sculpture! This collection of historically and artistically significant works in Greater Binghamton and Broome County is a collaboration with Binghamton University Art History Department and Professor Kevin Hatch. This catalogue offers stories about how these works came to "live" among us and the artists who designed them. Many of these public sculptures bear the scars of change caused by nature's sun and storms or by human neglect and, sometimes, violence. But still they stand, meaningful public sculptures that serve as community touchstones of past glories, current realities, and future promise. Each sculpture featured possesses its own unique story. As you click through the exhibition, you can read its history as well as locate the sculpture within Broome County.

Download reference map of the sculptures from Broome County Arts Council. Enjoy! <https://broomearts.org/in-the-community/public-sculpture-tours/> You may also wish to include a public mural tour, assembled by DPA. The project belongs to the Center for Gender, Art, & Culture. The production of the catalog was funded by a BCAC UCF Project Grant. Here is a link to their catalog: <https://deptofpublicart.com/map/>

Here is the route for the self-guided sculpture tour:

- Begin at Kennedy Park, Henry & Chenango streets
- Broome County Court House, Intersection of Chenango, Court, & Exchange streets
- Government Plaza, Hawley Street
- 20 Hawley Street Apartments, (Stuart Street side)
- Finish at Confluence Park, off Memorial Bridge, North Shore Drive
